

Policies and Processes for Presenters for the Wellness2027 Conference

It is essential that all materials presented and utilized for any one presentation is original from the author and that all permissions and copyright approvals are obtained. All presenters will submit learning materials (e.g. handouts, powerpoints, URLs, etc.) 2 months prior to any conference at which they are presenting for approval of the conference committee.

All presenters must disclose any financial and non-financial support. All presenters will complete a financial disclosure form once any presentation is accepted.

To ensure all presenters are qualified to present, bios of all presenters will be requested by the conference committee.

Any concerns or complaints regarding any policy must be filed with the conference committee no later than 1 week post-conference.

All attendees will have a check off at the door by a door attendant for each session attended to receive proper PD credit. They will then sign their card and hand it in.

At the end of the conference, all attendees will hand in a signed completion card for verification by the conference committee, after which they will receive their PD credits.

Refund Policy:

Any refunds for the conference will be as follows:

January 6: 100% or $150

January 15: 50% or $75

After January 15: No refunds

Privacy policy:

PZ Wellness will not sell or advertise any attendee personal information.
